Mile-High Bathing

Swim under a friendly Alpine sun in the terrace pool at Banff with a background of majestic peaks.

Stately

MOUNT STEPHEN HALL

Rich with the atmosphere of ancient Scotland, Mount Stephen Hall breathes the character and spirit of the mountains that shelter Banff from the outer world. This mellow, fifteenth century room is but one of many equally fine which belong to you while you are at Banff Springs Hotel. The Oak Room with its great stone fireplace—the pillared Fairholme Lounge—the Riverview Lounge looking out on forest, stream and mountain. Luxurious . . . yet in harmony with the majesty of the peaks, the gaiety of the guests and the zest of outdoor sports—golf, tennis, riding, hiking, swimming, fishing. You will enjoy that balance of values which makes for perfect living. And —there is no hay fever in the Canadian Rockies.

After Dinner —Chamber Music in Mount Stephen Hall—or if you prefer, Dance Music in the Ball Room

From this lovely Terrace

Glorious vistas of Alpine color in Banff National Park . . . snow-capped mountains and bright blue skies make every hour enchanting.

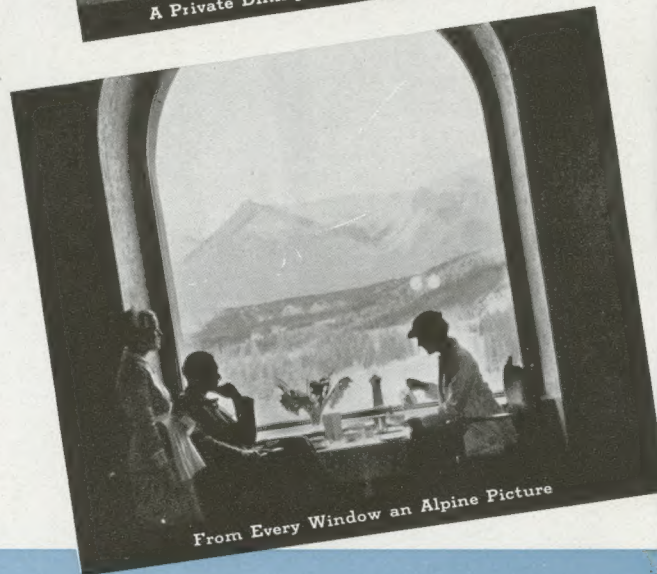

Spaciousness and Luxurious Comforts typify Suites at Banff

Appointments are such as you might look for only in the finest of homes—costly Oriental rugs, old English cupboards steeped in history, rare and interesting chests, authentic period furniture. And all supplemented by the conveniences of modern living which are all about you—smart little shops, beauty parlor, barber shop, a bank in the lobby, ticket office, telegraph and cable office, information bureau, an up-to-the-minute library. Nothing is lacking.

A Private Dining Room in Banff's Baronial Style

From Every Window an Alpine Picture

Mile-High Golf

Greens at Banff are smooth as velvet, fairways wide and fine. All about you is top-of-the-world grandeur to inspire your game.

Suite living rooms are really liveable!

Dance in a spacious ballroom

Living quarters are planned for every preference and need. There are 38 suites—the Viceregal with 14 rooms and others of varying size—many choicely furnished two-room suites in Italian, Georgian, Tudor, Jacobean, Swiss, Empire and modern style. 600 bedrooms—all with private bath—looking out upon Sulphur Mountain or beautiful Bow River Valley. Many private dining rooms.

Mile-High Fishing

If fly fishing is your sport, you'll find gamey trout near your hotel or lurking in alluring mountain streams.

THE TERRACE

AT Lake Louise

CALLS YOU TO

"Rest in the Sun

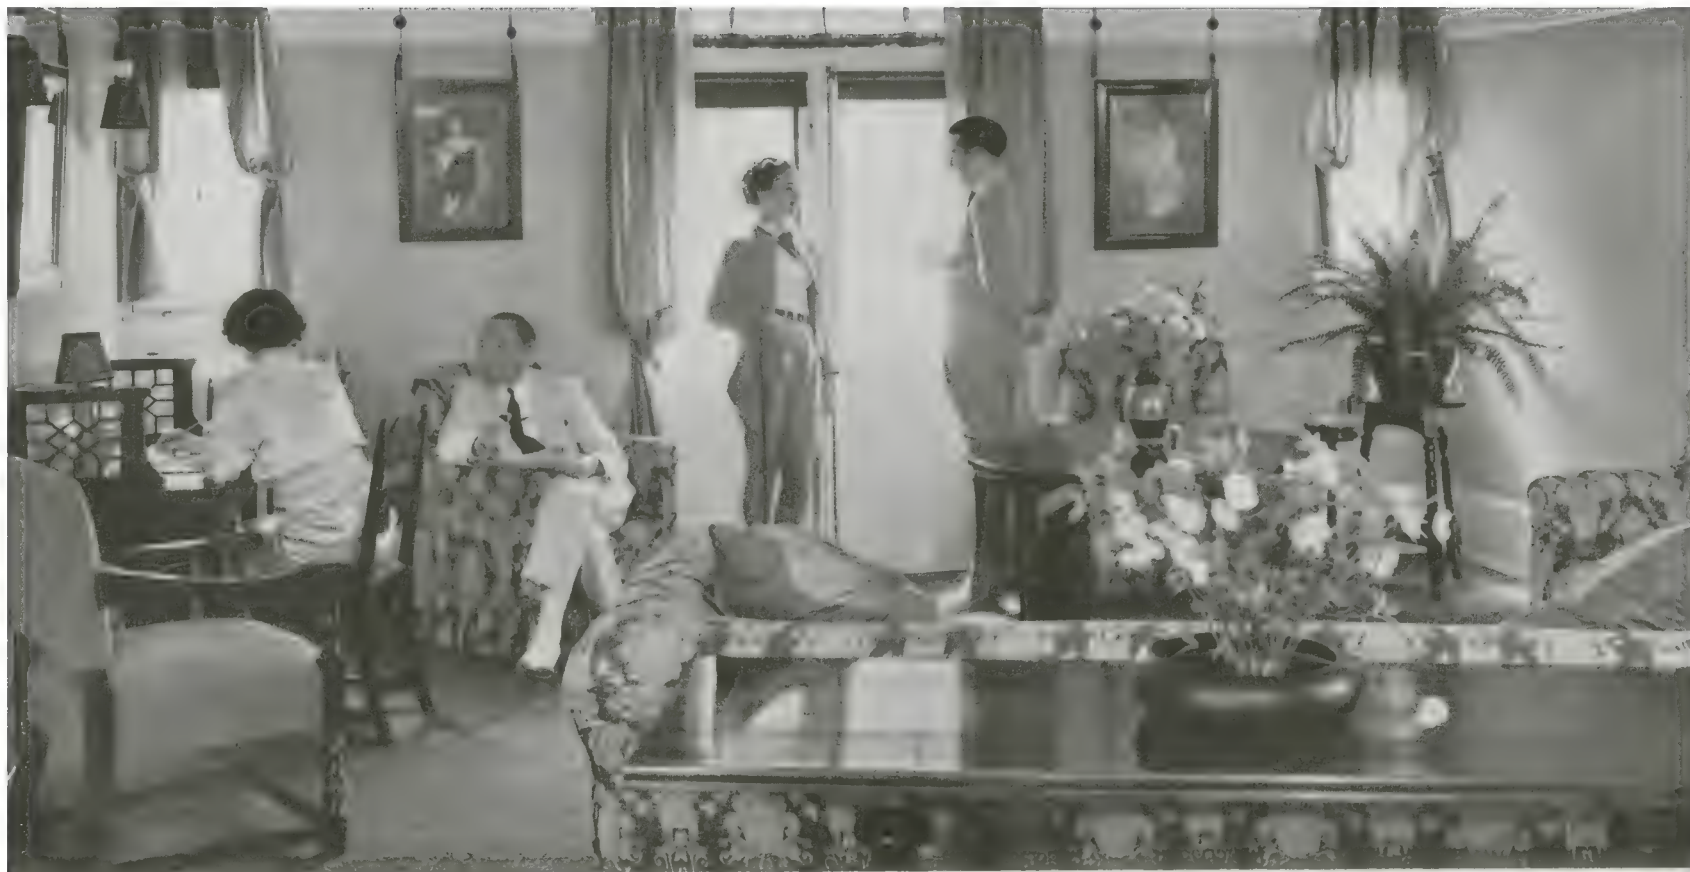

Romance in the Moon"

Loveliest of all glacial lakes and the most photographed lake in the world—Lake Louise is just 40 miles from Banff. Look into its sapphire depths and see in sharp reflection the snow-capped mountains and gleaming Victoria Glacier. Along the shores, bright Iceland poppies grow profusely to give accent to the formal Alpine gardens that surround the gracious Chateau Lake Louise. Beautiful in the sunlight of its perfect days, Lake Louise is pure romance under the spell of moon and stars.

Knee Deep in Flowers

All the world seems dipped in rainbow colors along the shores of Lake Louise, Greenland of Canada's Alpine playground.

Charmingly Continental ARE YOUR COLORFUL SURROUNDINGS AT CHATEAU LAKE LOUISE

Your hotel at Lake Louise is aptly named—Chateau Lake Louise! It has such an air of old-world charm. Even indoors you feel the great expansiveness of nature—with tall, broad windows from every suite and every room—lounges, writing rooms. And the very sun seems brighter here on the crest of the world. Life is so gay on the broad terrace along the shores that its lure is irresistible!

Beauty is ever-present here. You cannot lift your eyes without seeing the indescribable glory of blue water, green forest or grey-and-white mountain.

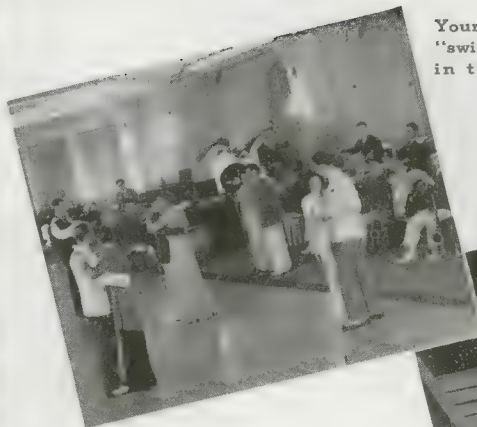

A glass-walled pool with mountain sun to bask in—and water at 75 degrees for exhilarating swimming. Always adventure and fun at this popular resort.

The sparkle of sparkling waters and

Real Swiss guides? Of course — they even have their Alpine horns!

Leisure at Lake Louise has a vibrant quality. You loaf luxuriously — or play zestfully. You swim, play tennis, ride, hike or fish—dance or play bridge, listen to good music, enjoy the fellowship of interesting companions. Lake Louise is a paradise for the motorist. Drives, remarkable for their Alpine beauty, can now be made over the new Columbia Icefield Highway stretching north from Lake Louise to the spectacular Columbia Icefield, one of the most amazing spectacles in the world. The route to this "ice-cap of the continent" is fringed by forests and flanked by Alpine peaks and vast glaciers.

Away from the world — but "in touch" just the same—with the latest newspapers and magazines
from everywhere

Emerald Lake — a rustic beauty spot in snow-crowned alps, just 23 miles from Lake Louise.

Informality is the rule at Emerald Lake, an Alpine spot where nature reigns unfettered. Emerald Lake is peaceful with the restful quiet of great forests and mountains and cool, calm waters. You are snug in your own rustic cabin; while at the Chalet, good meals, roaring log fires and stimulating companionship await you. There are easy trails for hiking or riding and good roads for your car or the comfortable busses, as you prefer.

Easy to get to - Banff & Lake Louise

Banff and Lake Louise are only a relatively few hours away . . . if you live anywhere in North America. The main line of the Canadian Pacific transcontinental railway passes through the heart of these Alpine playgrounds in Banff National Park. Many of the important railroads of the United States make connections with fine, air-conditioned trains to Banff. And the trip itself is most interesting . . . you enjoy complete changes in scenery; from prairie lands to rolling hills and giant mountains.

You can also enjoy this vacation on your way to the North Pacific Coast, California and Alaska. Include Banff, Lake Louise, Emerald Lake and the Columbia Icefield in your itinerary and vary the trip.
